The Chants and Introductory Sentences

Sung at Trinity Church, Tunbridge Wells. Arranged for Three Voices, (Two Trebles and a Bass), with an Organ or Pianoforte Part, by CHARLES GOODBAN, Mus. Bac., Oxon.

This work will contain FIVE INTRODUCTORY SENTENCES, four of which have never before been published; and FORTY-SIX CHANTS, (single, double, and quadruple), many of which are of established character, and others now published for the first time. This simple arrangement has been adopted from the consideration that it is often difficult to insure the performance of this portion of Divine Service in the full harmony of four parts. It will also be found of great advantage in a Family Circle, where the three parts might often be filled up with ease, while it is perhaps impossible to obtain the performance of four parts.

J. A. Novello, 69, Dean-street, Soho-square, London.

Johann Sebastian Bach's Six Motetts,

(two of which were recently performed at the Meeting of the BACH SOCIETY,) now in course of publication, are to be printed in Score, with English and German Words, and an additional adaptation for the Pianoforte or Organ, for use at Rehearsals. The English Words by W. BARTHOLOMEW, Esq.

This Work, which is to be brought out under the auspices of the LONDON BACH SOCIETY, will contain about Fifty Sheets, extra large Music Size; and, in order to give it as wide a circulation as the Works of the great Master deserve, the Publishers have determined to render it at a price which will bring it within the reach of every Student and Amateur; and in consequence, have opened a Subscription List, fixing the price of the Six Motetts at Fifteen Shillings, payable on delivery. The Subscription price to cease when the work is complete.

N.B.—Separate Voice Parts will also be engraved; those to No. 1 being already done.

72, Newgate-street, September 1850.

* * * The Chants are given in Vocal Score, with an Accompaniment for the use of Amateurs.

—English Churchman.

"The present Work,—whose object is to furnish a complete series of Anglican Chants, or a collection of music the spirit and form of which is in perfect keeping with the character and the requisitions of the English Church Service,—is one of such high merit, evincing so great zeal, and judgment, and care in its compilation, as to deserve the attention of all whom the subject concerns. * * * We confidently recommend the Publication as in every respect fitted for general use."—Musical World.

"An excellent collection of Single Chants, arranged for the course of the Psalter, and affording unmistakable evidence of the judgment and taste of a well-educated musician."—Parish Choir.

MUSIC COPYING SUPERSEDED.

To Choral Societies. J. Alfred Novello

I would respectfully call the attention of all who may require the use of separate Vocal Parts of Oratorios, Masses, Motetts, Anthems, &c., to the large Catalogue of that class of Music which he prints, and to the great reduction which he has made in the price of it since the 1st of January, 1849. All separate Vocal Parts are now published for which will be found less costly than the blank music paper necessary to copy out the same quantity of music. Good printed copies can thus be obtained not only for less than the blank paper, but saving all the trouble or cost of copying, and ensuring a correctness which is unattainable in manuscript copies.

Printed by JOSEPH ALFRED NOVELLO, of 69, Dean-street, Soho, in the County of Middlesex, Printer, at his Office in Dean's Yard, 21, Dean-street, in the Parish of St. Anne's, in the said County, and Published by him, at 69, Dean-street, aforesaid, and also at 24, Poultry, in the City of London.
